Weekly status:
This past week was the first week of classes for the Spring 2008 semester and as a group we started planning for the upcoming semester. Over break, our board, the Nexys-2 by Digilent arrived and we will begin working with it during this coming week. This past week, we set up meeting times for us to meet as a group and for us to meet as a group with our advisor. We will meet with our advisor every week to every other week, depending on what is necessary. We will continue to meet weekly as a group to continue working on the project and may take advantage of the lab hours during the semester.

Weekly report is due to Senior Design Coordinator and TA by Noon Monday. Email submission is greatly preferred - submit using WebCT, email to sd@koala.ece.stevens-tech.edu or individual emails. Copy should be sent to advisor
